St. Gaspar Family of Parishes

St. Gaspar Family of Parishes is served by the Missionaries of the Precious Blood

Pastor, Fr. Anthony Fortman, C.P.P.S.

Parochial Vicar, Fr. Seraphine Lesiriam, C.P.P.S., Parochial Vicar Fr. Jim "Santiago" Gaynor, C.P.P.S.

Pastor's Desk

On June 29 and 30, our Masses will feature the readings and music for the Feast of the Precious Blood. This annual tradition, observed for the feast day on July 1, is a cherished part of our liturgical calendar. For this Sunday's Pastor's Desk Deacon Rusty Baldwin shares a reflection on Precious Blood Spirituality.

Symbols

The spirituality of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, according to Fr. Schreiter, C.P.P.S., can be summed up in four symbols: the Covenant, the Cross, the Cup, and the Paschal Lamb. These symbols are not simply reminders of how God has worked in the past, they also carry a vision for the future, sealed in the Blood of Christ.

The Cross

I'll focus on just one of these rich symbols, the Cross. Precious Blood spirituality considers the Cross in a unique way. It invites us to join Our Lord on the Cross to see and experience the world he came to save as he did. To learn how true power is found in the helplessness and the pain of that Victim on the cross. From the Cross, we see the cast-offs of society, those God loves and wants to consecrate in Christ's blood; we experience every reproach Our Lord suffered. In the vulnerability that the Cross so starkly signifies we come to understand how God sees us and our world: a world so precious to Him yet deeply wounded in so many ways.

May our prayer be that, through His Precious Blood, we too might become channels of His grace to the world.

St. Gaspar del Bufalo, pray for us!

St. Rita's Temporary Location Change

We want to thank St. Rita parishioners for their patience and grace for the last minute change of location for Mass this past weekend. For those who may not know, St. Rita's air conditioning has experienced major equipment failure and the entire system is going to be replaced. This could take anywhere from two weeks to two months.

In light of this, and with the health and comfort of our parishioners in mind, the Tuesday 8:30 am and Sunday 8:30 am Masses at St. Rita have been temporarily moved to Precious Blood Church.

Please rest assured that these changes are temporary, and we are committed to restoring services at St. Rita as soon as possible.

Notes from Emmanuel's Choir Loft

From Music Director, Michelle Carner

Since we are blessed to be served by the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, today we enjoy the Mass for the titular feast for this order. Our meditation hymn, "Glory Be to Jesus," honors the Blood of Christ in its simple, yet profound, text. Note especially the stirring final verse in its unaltered form (tr. by Edward Caswall, 1857): Lift we, then, our voices/swell the mighty flood; louder still and louder/praise the Precious Blood!

Precious Blood, St. Paul and St. Rita

Thank You, Tom Franz for Your Dedicated Service

@St. Paul

As we bid farewell to our Maintenance Supervisor, Tom Franz, we reflect on the incredible impact he has had on our St. Paul Parish community. Tom retired in early June after seven years of unwavering dedication and hard work, leaving behind a legacy of excellence and care.

Throughout his tenure, Tom has ensured that our parish facilities ran smoothly and efficiently. His meticulous attention to detail, combined with his deep commitment to our community, ensured that our spaces were always welcoming, safe, and functional. From the smallest repair to the most complex maintenance project,

Tom approached every task with a level of professionalism and pride that is truly commendable.

Tom's contributions extend far beyond his role as Maintenance Supervisor. As a Charter Member of St. Paul's, along with his wife Barb, Tom has been an integral part of our parish since its inception. Both Tom and Barb have been active in numerous parish ministries, demonstrating their unwavering faith and dedication to service. Their presence and participation have enriched our community in countless ways, fostering a spirit of fellowship and devotion.

Though Tom is retiring from his official duties, we are grateful that he will still be around, continuing to be a vital part of our parish family. His wisdom, experience will remain a cherished aspect of our community life.

On behalf of everyone at St. Paul Parish, we extend our heartfelt thanks to Tom for his hard work, dedication, and exceptional attention to detail. We are deeply grateful for everything he has done and for the many ways he has enriched our community.

We also extend our best wishes to Tom for a happy and fulfilling retirement. May this new chapter of his life be filled with joy, relaxation, and continued blessings. Thank you, Tom, for your incredible service and for being a pillar of our parish. Your legacy of excellence will always be remembered and appreciated.

All In the Family

Thank you, Cathy Gough

@St. Paul

We are honored to recognize Cathy Gough for her incredible 18 years of dedicated service in maintaining St. Paul's. Cathy, Tom Franz's daughter, has been a cornerstone of our church community, ensuring that our space is always clean and welcoming.

Cathy's connection to St. Paul's goes beyond her maintenance duties; she has spent her entire life here, actively participating in parish ministry and contributing to the life of our church in countless ways. Her involvement embodies the spirit of community and devotion that St. Paul's stands for.

In addition to her work at the church, Cathy has been juggling a busy life as a teacher at Mother Brunner and a Direct Sales Consultant for Origami Owl. Her ability to balance these roles with her dedication to St. Paul's is nothing short of inspiring.

We are deeply thankful for Cathy's many years of service and the significant impact she has made on our community. Her commitment and hard work will be greatly missed.

Please join us in expressing our gratitude to Cathy Gough for her unwavering dedication and service to St. Paul's.

With Sincere Appreciation,

Court Rules USCCB & Catholic Orgs Can't Be Forced to Pay for Abortions

A federal court in Louisiana on [June 17th] ruled that an agency of the Biden administration cannot force the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) and other Catholic organizations to pay for their employees' abortions. [The] Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) sought to use its interpretation of the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act (PWFA) to mandate that Catholic employers cover abortions, contrary to their religious beliefs. The order from the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Louisiana ruled that the "EEOC has exceeded its statutory authority to implement the PWFA." "[I]n doing so, [the EEOC] both unlawfully expropriated the authority of Congress and encroached upon the sovereignty of the [plaintiffs]," the court order stated.

Becket Law, the law firm that represented the plaintiffs, noted that the "ruling protects the [USCCB] and several other Catholic ministries from the [abortion-accommodation] mandate while the case is ongoing." "The states of Louisiana and Mississippi had filed a parallel lawsuit before the same court, and employers in those states were also protected by the ruling," Becket indicated. "The federal government has 60 days to appeal the decision." Becket counsel Laura Wolk Slavis stated: "The EEOC twisted a law protecting expecting mothers and their babies and co-opted the workplaces of over 130 million Americans to support abortion." "That is an abuse of power," Wolk Slavis emphasized. "[N]o one should have to choose between their conscience and protecting pregnant women. Banning employers nationwide from affirming life is unacceptable and unlawful." She went on the call the ruling "an important step in ensuring that American workplaces can be free to continue serving their communities consistent with their beliefs."

From the Emmanuel Pro-Life Committee

So ends the pamphlet "Sing a Little Louder", urging us all to fight abortion. It starts with a story of the Holocaust, but as the pamphlet notes, it is too late to stop that atrocity. It is not too late to fight for today's victims. We can:

- pray (for the pregnancy resource center workers, and for our religious and political leaders)
- educate ourselves so we can educate others (see the pro-life pamphlet rack in the back of Emmanuel church)
- support pregnancy resource centers with our time or financial resources

Thank you, parishioners of Emmanuel, for helping to fight our modern holocaust.
