St. Gaspar Family of Parishes

Served by the Missionaries of the Precious Blood

Pastor, Fr. Anthony Forman, C.P.P.S., Parochial Vicar, Fr. Seraphine Lesiriam, C.P.P.S., Parochial Vicar Fr. Jim "Santiago" Gaynor, C.P.P.S.

Pastor's Desk

In today's gospel, "One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked Him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?"

Jesus replied,

"The first is this: Hear, O Israel!

The Lord our God is Lord alone!

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,

with all your soul,

with all your mind,

and with all your strength.

The second is this:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

There is no other commandment greater than these."

It is very clear that God wants us to be focused on Him and others. We are not to be narcissistic, which means totally focused on self. I have heard the slogan "JOY".

Joy comes from breaking up the letters JOY. For JOY to come into your life, Jesus comes first, then others, and then yourself. Jesus, others, yourself. So when you start your day, put Jesus first by prayer, then serve others, then be good to yourself in the evening.

Many times when I'm frustrated, I find that this priority scale is out of whack in my life. I put myself before Jesus or I put myself before others. Paul tells us that we are to see other people as more important than ourselves. We are to be a servant to all. This is not to be compromised in anyway. As we draw close to advent, let us put our priorities straight as we await our coming Messiah.

God bless you all,

Fr. Tony Fortman

Vocation Awareness Week November 3-9

Discernment Retreat at St. Charles Center, November 16-17, 2024

As we approach National Vocation Awareness Week, taking place from November 3-9, it's a wonderful time to reflect on the unique callings God places in our lives. This week offers us an opportunity to deepen our gratitude for those called to serve as Missionaries of the Precious Blood and to encourage others to consider their own vocations in life.

For those who are considering a call to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, we are offering a Discernment Retreat the weekend of November 16-17, 2024, at St. Charles Center. This overnight retreat is open to single men aged 18-40 who want to explore their call in a supportive, faith-filled environment. Attendees will spend time in prayer, hear from presenters, reflect, and have the opportunity to meet members of the community.

Currently, four men are actively engaging in the Discernment Journal program to learn about our congregation and will be joining us at this retreat. We would love to see even more participants! If you know someone who demonstrates a strong faith and a willingness to serve others, consider inviting them to this retreat. You can share their contact information with us, or better yet, personally invite them to join this weekend of reflection and community. This discernment journey is essential, allowing participants to pause and recognize the blessings God has placed in their lives and to sense His guidance more clearly. If you know a young adult who may be interested, please feel free to reach out to Fr. Angelo Anthony, CPPS, at 937-694-5254 or via email at vocation@preciousbloodus.org.

As we celebrate National Vocation Awareness Week, let us remember the importance of living our calling and sharing it with others. By fostering vocations, we contribute to the life and mission of the Church, honoring the Precious Blood of Jesus and sharing the gift of His love. Mission truly is in our blood!

What Does C.P.P.S. Mean?

C.P.P.S. is an abbreviation of the Latin name of the congregation: Congregatio Pretiosissimi Sanguinis, Congregation of the Most Precious Blood. Missionaries of the Precious Blood priests and brothers are designated by the credentials "C.P.P.S." following their names.

Together Sunday

November 24, 2024

On Sunday, November 24, our St. Gaspar Family of Parishes will join others throughout the archdiocese in celebrating Together Sunday, a day to welcome back Catholics who may have been away from the Church for any reason. This year, we are making a special effort to invite those who do not attend church regularly to come back to Mass. This day coincides with the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

We ask everyone to help make Together Sunday as welcoming as possible. Here are some ways you can contribute to creating a warm, inclusive atmosphere for all who come:

- Move to the center of the pews so people do not have to climb over you to find a seat.
- Park in a more distant spot in the parking lot, leaving closer spaces for new or returning Catholics.
- Greet those in your pew—even a simple smile can make someone feel at home.

Please prayerfully consider one person you can personally invite to join us on November 24. Whether it's through your invitation, greeting people at the door, or assisting with the reception after Mass, your role in this day of welcome is invaluable. For more details on ways to volunteer, visit the bulletin, parish website, or weekly email. Let's make November 24 a day of true welcome for all.

Notes from Emmanuel's Choir Loft

Today, at the Offertory, you will hear a "full proper" antiphon from the collection of Gregorian chant, which is our heritage as Catholics. Found in medieval manuscripts well over 1100 years old and sung throughout the centuries on this particular Sunday of the Church year, its text is taken from Psalm 103: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all He has done for you, and your youth will be renewed like the eagle's." The music was written to "sound" like what the words mean. Notice especially the long and lively melody on the word "juventus," which means "youth," and hear the joyful mode chosen by the composer. Fr. Samuel Weber has masterfully adapted the chant for the English version while respecting the musical integrity of the original.
