From the Pastor's Desk

Don't Forget to Ask for Help

Padre Pio tells us to pray, hope, and don't worry, to make our requests known to the Lord. Sometimes people think, "I have to figure my way out of this situation." It is true that God gives you knowledge, right judgment, and wisdom in your decision making. But don't forget to ask for God's help. Take one minute and say, "God, please give me the insight to do what is right. God, lead me, guide me, and let your will be known to me through other people." God speaks to us through other people, our own thoughts, and our dreams when we sleep.

By Prayer and Petition

We hear in today's second reading from Philippians: "Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:6-7

Give Thanks to God

After you have prayed, give thanks to the Lord. Thank Him for listening to your prayer. Thank Him for answering your prayer. Sometimes unanswered prayers are an answer to prayer. We have to give God time to move people's hearts, to test people, and to reveal His will to people and ourselves. This does not always happen overnight. God hears you. Never doubt whether God is listening to you or not. Your speaking to God is not in vain. Be patient with the Lord as He is patient with you. Also, we remember the Blessed Virgin Mary. This past week, we celebrated the rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Don't be afraid to use that rosary. It is an oldie but a goodie. It is just like the old antibiotic, amoxicillin. It still works.

Thank you very much,

Fr. Tony Fortman C.P.P.S.

Issue 1 Talking Points

The following talking points have been carefully put together to serve as a valuable resource for our community. They aim to provide you with information, insights, and perspectives that can aid in your understanding of Issue 1, facilitating more informed discussions and decision-making

- Catholic Teaching: Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion, that is to say, abortion willed either as an end or a means, is gravely contrary to the moral law" (Catechism of the Catholic Church No. 2271).
- Catholic Duty: For faithful Catholics, Issue 1 is not a mere political choice, as when we consider pros and cons of partisan candidates who may or may not be pro-life. On the contrary, Issue 1 presents a stark, moral choice, for or against the intrinsic evil of abortion. Catholics must not be silent and cannot remain on the sidelines when confronted with such a clear threat to human life (see Ohio Catholic Bishops letter, 2-28-23 & Archbishop Schnurr letter, 8-12-23)
- False Narratives: Too many people mistakenly think Issue 1 is needed to keep abortion legal in Ohio. In fact, abortion is currently allowed up to 22 weeks. The recent Heartbeat Law, now blocked by court order, would reduce the limit to around 6 weeks while still keeping abortion legal. Also, medical care for ectopic pregnancies and miscarriages is unrestricted in Ohio and will remain so regardless of Issue 1.
- Parental Rights: Issue 1 would also cancel current parental consent laws for all reproductive decisions not limited to abortion, including transgender treatments and surgeries. Vulnerable minors, swayed by peer pressure, social media or education influencers, could legally undergo such procedures of their own accord.

Highlights of the ministries of
St. Vincent de Paul Society, Dayton District Council

Sensed But Not Seen

The most common request received by our Vincentian conferences is for food. Miss Paula, on the day of her home visit, had two hot dogs and a package of ramen noodles in the house. The Vincentians reached out to a mobile food ministry who provided some comfort food of ham and beans and some sack lunches until she could get to the grocery. Paula was delighted to have the hot ham and beans for dinner. The sack lunches consisted of a sandwich, fruit, a chocolate bar, and juice, which would be lunch for the following day.

As the Vincentians left, they prayed. They could hear Paula singing and humming thorough the door about the meal she was about to enjoy. Although they could not see her they could sense that she was dancing. Imagine, singing and dancing over a humble meal of ham and beans. For the Vincentians it served as a reminder that we all share in the joy of nourishing the hungry.

Paula's bare fridge before getting groceries.

"I am so grateful. . . From the bottom of my heart"

For more than a decade, Chris bounced in and out of shelter, sober living facilities, and jail. He struggled with alcohol and mental illness. When he finally committed to getting help, he realized that St. Vincent staff genuinely cared about him and wanted him to succeed. "When you are homeless you get labeled that you're not human," Chris says. "But here people cared for me. My case manager was patient with me and helped me through the process."

Now for the first time, Chris has an apartment of his own. He says, "It feels liberating. I was shocked when I found out I had my own place. I have to pinch myself that it is really happening. This is my first time having housing of my own. I am so grateful, and that really comes from the bottom of my heart."

"SONS OF VINCENT DE PAUL, LET US LEARN OF HIM TO FORGET OURSELVES, TO DEVOTE OURSELVES TO THE SERVICE OF GOD AND THE GOOD OF MEN. LET US LEARN OF HIM THAT HOLY PREFERENCE WHICH SHOWS MOST LOVE TO THOSE WHO SUFFER MOST." - BLESSED FREDERIC OZANAM

"I didn't come in thinking that this would become a permanent position for me, but after working with amazing people, I couldn't see myself moving on from such a fulfilling and exciting job. So, when the opportunity came about, I could not pass it up. I want to thank everyone for making this such a great place to work . . . It is a pleasure to officially be a part of CSSMV!"

"Jesus encountered wounded humanity, he caressed suffering faces, healed broken hearts, freed us from the chains imprisoning the soul. In this way, he reveals to us that the type of worship most pleasing to God is to care for our neighbour."

Sunday Volunteers Needed

Erma's House Family Visitation Center offers a supervised, safe, and neutral environment for children to visit and maintain a relationship with their non-custodial parents. We need monitors to supervise weekly visits, which generally last 1 to 2.5 hours at our 1046 Brown Street location in Dayton. Sunday volunteers are most urgently needed; you must be at least 18 and training is provided. For more info, call our volunteer coordinator at 937.223.7217 x1130 or visit cssmv.org/help/volunteer to fill out a volunteer application.
